THE COMMISSION

Secretly Considering the Whole Florida Case.

An Agreement Reached

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Joint Commission met in secret session, this morning, with the whole Florida case before it for consideration. Messrs. Shellabarger and Everts yesterday afternoon presented the Republican side of the Humphreys case, and Mr. Merrick closed for the Democrats.

This morning such of the members of the Commission as desire to will have the opportunity of discussing the case. It is believed that at this time the verdict will be made up this afternoon, ready for a report to Congress to-morrow morning, and it is more than probable that we may have it during to-day.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Commission has reached an agreement, and the opinion is now being prepared. Nothing can be given as to the result till it is made public. Rumors are plenty, but not worth repeating.

FROM THE NATIONAL CAPITAL

Still Investigating.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The Senate Sub-Committee on Louisiana Affairs met at 11 A. M. A. B. Livers, of Louisiana, an alleged ineligible Hayes Elector, was examined by Mr. Sausbury.

Had been United States Commissioner, Circuit Judge and District Attorney at Shreveport; held the office of United States Commissioner till about November 20; took affidavit concerning the election at Shreveport; acted as an Elector December 6; voted for Hayes and Wheeler; a proposition was made to him to cast his Electoral vote for Tilden.

The House Committee on Powers and Privileges this morning examined R. M. Daggett, an Elector from Nevada, supposed to be ineligible on account of having been a Clerk of the District and Circuit Courts. He resigned by telegram November 6 to Circuit Judge Sawyer, who acknowledged it by telegram the same day; also, by telegraph and mail to Judge Hillyer, District Judge, on the same day, but has never received a reply.

NEWS FROM THE METROPOLIS

Fire Last Night.

National Associated Press to the Star. NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—About 11 o'clock last night a fire broke out on the fourth floor of a five-story building, Nos. 188 and 190 West Houston street, occupied by Seggs Bros., photographers and lithographers. The flames spread rapidly and communicated with the third floor, occupied by Wiester & Co. as a laundry. Loss on Seggs Bros' stock and machinery, $25,000; Magic Ruffing Co., $1,000; Manhattan Laundry, $5,000. The building was damaged to the extent of $10,000. Most of the losses are covered by insurance.

The Carnival.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The movement to have a Mardi Gras celebration in this city is assuming definite form. Many prominent business men have enlisted their services, and there is no doubt but that the Carnival will be a success. The celebration, it has been decided, will include a procession through the principal streets of the city on Wednesday, April 4, and a procession through Broadway of illuminated characters.

Criticizing the Commission.

The Sun this morning editorially reflects very severely on the Electoral Commission, which it stigmatizes as a nondescript. It discussed the powers of the Commission on from a Constitutional view and contends that it possesses neither legislative nor judicial powers. It is not claimed that it has legislative powers, and it is claimed, the Tribune is a Court, it is unconstitutional.

FOREIGN.

THE CZAR.

National Associated Press to the Star.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 9.—The Czar before going to Kischeneff will hold a grand review of the troops in this city, when an important speech is expected.

NOT MUCH OF A DISGRACE.

VIENNA, Feb. 9.—It is reported now that Midhat Pasha's disgrace is only a sham on the part of the Porte for covering an attempt to negotiate singly with Russia. Midhat Pasha proceeds in the meantime on appropriate mission to Rome, Vienna and Paris, and it is understood he is to be reinstated as Grand Vizier on his return.

THE PRESS IN GREECE.

ATHENS, Feb. 9.—Two Greek journals published at Trieste, accused of being in the pay of Russia, were publicly burned last night.

Taylor, the Defaulting Cashier.

National Associated Press to the Star. INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 9.—A Franklin, Indiana, dispatch says Taylor, the defaulting Cashier, returned last night, and was found in an insane and otherwise critical condition. He knows nothing, and can give no information. Doctors say death may occur at any minute. The loss will reach $175,000.

Congressional.

National Associated Press to the Star.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—Mr. O'Brien presented memorials of the Baltimore Board of Trade for appropriations for an expedition to the North Pole. The regular order having been demanded, the House resumed a consideration of the deficiency appropriation bill.

LOCAL PERSONALS.

All of the above-mentioned parties voted the straight Republican ticket.

Captain Michael Welsh testified that he was one of the Democratic Challenge Committee of the First Precinct, Fifth Ward, at the October election; he challenged the votes of ten colored men who voted the Republican ticket, and swore that they lived at No. 10 McAlister street; visited that house the next day and found that it was vacant; had a list of these ten voters, but lost it.
